

Key Technical Specifications

According to these documents, the AT470HS includes the following specialized hardware and software features:

- RF Frequency: DECT 1.8 GHz (1880MHz to 1900MHz).
- Radio Frequency Output: ≤ 250 mW EIRP.
- System Compatibility: Designed exclusively for use with the Uniden AT4701 2-Line Wireless Desk Phone System.
- Expansion Capacity: The main AT4701 system can support up to 10 total extensions (including handsets and desk phones).
- Physical Features:
  - Audio: Digital volume control, handset speakerphone, and hearing aid compatibility.
  - Connectivity: 2.5 mm headset jack for hands-free use.
  - Mounting: Can be placed on a desk or wall-mounted.
- Software Features:
  - Caller ID: Call Waiting Caller ID with a 99 name/number log.
  - Directory: Shared 99 name/number directory.
  - Functions: Do Not Disturb (DND) with variable length settings, privacy line lockout, and 3-number redial memory.
  - Display: Trilingual support (English, Spanish, French).

Registration Tip

To add an AT470HS to your existing AT4701 system, you must register the new handset by placing it in the main base unit for at least 5 seconds until the status LED indicates successful pairing.